

You can contact me at mrmccrudden3@stannenj.com.

Happy New Year! I hope everyone enjoyed their Christmas break. I would like to thank all of you for your generosity and thoughtfulness.

We will continue to work on learning our multiplication facts in math over the next several weeks. Please help your child practice their multiplication facts each night.

We will continue to learn about different types of animals and their habitats in our science unit. The students will be given information on an animal report and project this month.